The Financial Hit of Concussion in Sport

Saturday night saw a sickening collision in the AFL While there's certainly more that governing bodies can do, there's also something we can do as individuals: adequate TPD insurance.

Life in the Pride

Our New Office Space!

In more exciting news, the Adelaide team will be officially moving into new offices on August 1. We're in the same building – 420 King William Street – but we're moving to the ground floor. We can't wait to share this new space with you but, until we can, here's some photos of our new digs.

Farewell to Joanna Truong

We would like to give a warm farewell to Joanna Truong, whose last day with the Pride Advice team is on July 1. Many of you have had contact with Jo over her nine years with us and she's constantly the recipient of great feedback. The entire team wishes her all the best with her future endeavours, and we know she'll make a brilliant team leader with her new employer!

Zakk's Fundraiser (RSPCA SA)

Last year, one of our beloved team-members, Tracey Boam, tragically lost her son. He would have turned 21 this year. In honour of this occasion, Tracey and her family are asking friends and family to make donations to the RSPCA. Zakk loved animals and had a gentle nature with them, so this would be the perfect way to honour his memory.
