Market Update 2023: What's Happening and Why?

Markets in 2023 started strongly yet very recently have experienced a lot of volatility and uncertainty as attention shifts to the banking sector's ability to absorb interest rate hikes which are unprecedented by way of size and pace.

Today's market update from Tony Davison provides some insight into what's happening, what we see ahead short term, and when we think markets will settle given the underlying resilience of the broader economy and strength of the Australian banking system.
